Pure mountain fancy

Our Quality Pledge

At any of the Wanderhotels, you can expect unique experiences of the mountains and of nature in the most beautiful hiking areas of the Alps. Our hotels - all of which are family run, many for generations - are as varied as the landscapes. What unites us is a love for the mountains, a passion for hiking, and the requirement that guests be offered an exciting, enjoyable and authentic hiking holiday. Year after year. Day after day.

We have been pooling our experiences and ideas since 1995, working together to develop specific services necessary for a perfect hiking holiday. The results of our work are manifested in our Quality Programme, which guarantees premium quality in experience and service at all of our member hotels.
